A meeting of Salt manufacturers was held in Kansas City this week to hear reports of R. F. Blount, their representative who was sent across the water since that industry was threatened with free trade, to see if it was possible to compete against outside salt manufacturers. The conference was participated in by J. F. Erving, of St. Louis, W. S. Moore and Major Vincent, of Hutchinson, Kansas, all extensive salt operators. According to the report English salt miners are paid seventy-five cents a day. No action was taken, but in an interview the gentlemen said later that it practically meant that they must get out of business.

Five hundred millions of dollars is quite a sum for one corporation to make by an act of Congress, and some of our readers may wonder how the sugar trust made so much on sugar. It was this way.

Pending the tariff tinkering in Congress the sugar trust bought immense quantities of sugar and shipped it into the United States, enough to last the country a long time. The sugar tariff was then added in the Senate, concurred in by the house and permitted to become a law, by president Cleveland. As this country cannot possibly produce enough to supply home demands, the trust absolutely controls the price, up to a certain point, and can add enough to the price to net them $500,000,000 without paying one cent of tariff to the government. Here in Dodge City we are already beginning to contribute our mite toward it at the rate of three pounds of sugar less on the dollar than we got before.

Capt. J. H. Churchill and G. G. Gilbert, of this city, went to Denver the first of this week, to represent us in the irrigation congress. This is a very important meeting. We noticed by the Rocky Mountain News that twenty-five states were represented, besides Canada and Old Mexico. It seems as though Dodge City was not lost in the shuffle, as the name of Capt. J. H. Churchill appeared among those of the committee on credentials, which is a very important committee.

Our delegates won a great victory for the southwest by having Albuquerque fixed upon as the place for holding the next convention. Capt. Churchill has returned, and informs us that the irrigation movement is increasing until it overshadows even politics. A high government official in department connected with this kind of work predicts that in the next decade Kansas will have 2,000,000 people, and that every acre of these western plains will be cultivated. Great credit is due men like Churchill and Gilbert, for devoting time and money to attend and participate in these important gatherings. We will give more regarding the great irrigating congress next week.

Frank Hakala has traded his property in the east part of town, north of east end of coal sheds on avenue K, to Hannah Waters for stock and wagon and will move with his family to Oklahoma territory. Has been here over 7 years. He has a homestead clear of encumbrance. Well 40 feet deep. He was a striking blacksmith, and though not an agitator, gave up his job at the command of his order, and must now become a wanderer until he finds other work, as the company will not take him back, and he is not prepared to fit up for frigrating his land, and has a strict rule against going in debt. In Mr. Hakala's removal this community will lose a worthy family of good citizens from our midst. He had only one weakness that we know of, and that was voting the democratic ticket.

Challenged and Accepted.

To I. F. Dawson, Clerk Dodge City Camp, No. 1609, M. W. of A.
 I am directed by Protection Lodge, No. 172, A. O. U. W., to challenge Dodge City Camp No. 1609, Modern Woodmen of America, to a social, physical, intellectual and skillful contest in a game of base ball at 3 o'clock p. m., Thursday, September 13, 1894.

L. G. GROBETZ,
 Recorder Protection Lodge.

To L. G. Grobets, Recorder of Protection Lodge, No. 172, A. O. U. W.
 Your challenge has been received, and Dodge City Camp No. 1609, Modern Woodmen of America, skilled in woodcraft, excelled by none in intellect, and, owing to our peculiar work, are naturally fitted for any contest requiring physical exertion. The ball bat we grip with you. Your challenge is accepted.

I. F. DAWSON,
 Clerk D. C. Camp, M. W. A.

After the Critics.

Several times the remark has been made in my hearing that if the editor of the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN is a Free Methodist he can exaggerate when writing up western Kansas, and as many times I have found that he had written correctly of the subject, while his critics had not in an instance made an effort to ascertain the truth of his statements. However, on looking over the issue of August 31, I read with astonishment the account of Mr. and Mrs. Motz's success with fruit, vegetables and flowers. I thought, is it possible that W. C. Shinn has begun to exaggerate in his old age, and that, too, under the restrictive influence of the divine power. Therefore I resolved to ascertain for myself the truth or error of the statements published. On visiting the home of Mr. Motz, I found that not half of what was shown me was told in the paper, and, in fact, the home and surroundings of this worthy family merit greater praise than was accorded in the published statement. The family also I found just as good as their grounds, and deserve the success they have achieved.

EDITOR GLOBE-REPUBLICAN:
 Here are several things which should have been mentioned, during the opening exercises at the College this week, and which were accidentally omitted.

Among them are three different lots of books, a considerable number in each lot donated by Hugh Keck, Rev. W. L. Beacock, and a piano donated in part by Mr. W. W. Munsell, and paid for in part by donations from a number of friends. See these in addition to the things referred to at the opening, and the many donations in money and work contributed by the citizens are properly appreciated.

The work done in landscape gardening by our friend Mr. Irwin Mudgett and his son E. A. Mudgett, which has made our ground one of the most beautiful places in the state, is worthy of the highest praise. They donated much of the work and brought many of the trees from their own nursery. I am sure our citizens will be glad to know that they have been engaged to complete the work next year, by planting evergreens and ornamental shrubbery in artistic arrangements through all the grounds. The school is on a solid financial basis and it is the purpose of the management to make it strictly first class.

E. H. VAUGHAN, President.

The theatrical season will open at Kelly's Opera House Sept. 25, with Oscar Wilde's famous play "Lady Windermere's Fan," and will be presented by one of Frohman's New York Companies who do not usually play at towns as small as Dodge City, but having one week to put in between Kansas City and Denver, Manager Pearce has secured them for this date, which speaks well for his standing with the theatrical profession.

He also has the following booked:—Oct. 30, "Tony Fairwell in the thrilling Irish comedy drama "Garry Owen" which is being played this week at the Ninth street theater in Kansas City.

Nov. 2d, The Musical Farce comedy "McCarthy's Cat."

Nov. 14, Another of Frohman's companies in "Charley's Aunt."

Dec. 6th, the celebrated emotional actress Maude Granger will be here.

The above are all standard attractions that play in the largest cities in the United States.

Ensign Notes.

J. K. Sayre attended the Republican county convention, at Dodge City last Saturday.

Lloyd Little will remove to Ohio, the latter part of Sept. to take charge of his father's farm.

Mrs. J. W. Bean has been employed to teach the Ensign school the ensuing term at a salary of $25 per month.

K. L. Allen will probably be the democratic nominee, for Probate judge of Gray county. Mr. Allen has a wide circle of friends through Gray county, and if nominated would make a strong race.

Rufus Charles, of Concord township, started east last Tuesday with his family, to locate in south west Missouri or Arkansas.

Cole Sutton has upwards of 100 acres sown to wheat. Mr. Sutton advocates early sowing of wheat and rye in this latitude.

The candidate is abroad in the land seeking whom he may devour. He holds up the way-farer, on the highways and delights to corner him and pull his buttons off, explaining how he loves the dear people, and what he will do when in office.

Soule College Opening.

Last Tuesday marked an important epoch in the educational interest of southwestern Kansas. It was the day on which Soule College was formally opened, and the occasion was successful beyond our most sanguine expectations. It is impossible for us to do the subject justice this week, but suffice it to say the business firms, with one accord, closed up their places and the community turned out en masse.

The first floor of the chapel was crowded, and the overflow had recourse to the ample gallery above.

Rev. H. S. Booth, from Jetmore, read a chapter from the Bible, and Rev. Williams, of Garden City, offered prayer, followed by the coronation hymn.

Mrs. J. W. Gilbert then sang a solo. It was pleasing to all, but of that character which only those of high musical culture could fully appreciate. The simple ballad she rendered on her second appearance appealed more to the hearts of the masses, which was testified by a hearty round of applause.

Mrs. Dr. S. J. Crumline also rendered some vocal music very acceptably to the audience.

Mrs. E. H. Vaughan accompanied the singing with instrumental music, in which she is highly proficient.

Rev. Vaughan, to whose apparently tireless efforts we are indebted for this grand educational institute, made a statement of what had been done, and how it came about.

Rev. Rose made a very practical talk on the future outlook, which he showed up in a cheerful light.

Rev. Booth, of Jetmore, made a convincing plea for young people to secure a college education, but the speaker who captured the audience completely, was Rev. Glendinning, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Every member of the college faculty was present, and seated on the speakers' platform. We would be glad to reproduce the brief synopsis of the merits of each professor as given by Rev. Vaughan, but space forbids.

Following is a list of faculty.

Rev. E. H. Vaughan, A. M., Ph D., President.

Prof. E. W. Kellogg, from Ohio University, Normal Department.

Prof. B. S. Merrill, Dartmouth College, N. H., Mathematics and Natural Science.

Miss Elenora Hays, Winfield College, Ancient Languages.

Prof. M. E. Watt, Ohio, Vocal Music, with Band and Orchestra Instruments.

Mrs. E. T. Vaughan, Piano.

Mrs. Lida Reynolds, Stenography and Typewriting.

Don't forget the Republican rally next Thursday evening.

Bucklin, Kas., Sept. 3, 1894.

Dear Sir:—I see a piece in your paper Aug. 13, '94, irrigation. Now it looks a little sick. It reminds one of the Ford City sugar mill steal. To a fraction that is what the people think around here. Now, if Mr. Stanley has an old auger that he wants to brighten in Kansas soil—or any other party—let them do it at their own expense, not at the expense of the people of Ford county, and if it is a success it will be a fine thing for him, and if it is a failure he will know who is the loser. I should think that the people of Ford county had been swindled about enough.

Religious Department.

A Christian.

Who is a christian? Not all who profess religion, who have been baptised and are not outbroken sinners—not all who partake of the elements of the Lord's Supper, or pay the preacher. Who, then, are christians? Those who are made new creatures in Christ Jesus. 2 Cor. 5:17. Those who are born of the spirit. St. John 3:5. Those who live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world. Titus 2:12. Those who serve him without fear in holiness and righteousness, all the days of their lives. Luke 1:75. Those who abide in Christ and are Christ-like. Those who have the spirit of Christ. Rom. 8:9. Now if any man have not the spirit of Christ he is none of his. A christian is led by the spirit of God, for as many as are led by the spirit of God they are the sons of God. Rom. 8:14.

May one be in darkness and be a christian? No. If we say we have fellowship with him and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth, but if we walk in the (Christ or) light we not only have fellowship, but the blood of Jesus Christ his son cleanseth us from all sin. So a person cleansed from all sin is a christian. Can one sin and be a christian? No. 1 John 3:8. He that committeth sin is of the devil. Is the will of a christian parallel or subject to God's will in all things? Yes. Are you a christian? Have you the spirit witnessing with your spirit that you are a child of God? Are you ready to die? Is there no condemnation or guilt on your heart and are you living in joy, righteousness and peace in the Holy Ghost, following peace with all men and holiness, without which no man shall see God? Be not only a christian by name but by practice and in heart.

The Sinner's Call.

God has various ways of calling the servants of Satan into his employ. He calls through the press, from the pen and pulpit, through all his children and especially the call through his word and by the striving of his Holy Spirit. Who does he call? All sinners, all that labor and are heavy laden, whether in the church or out of it. When does He call? In 2 Cor. 6:2 Behold now is the accepted time. Behold now is the day of salvation, and in Rev. 3:20 Behold I stand at the door and knock. What does he call us to do? He came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. Have you repented? If not you are a sinner, if you repent you will not indulge in sin again. With a genuine repentance one makes restitution, confesses sins, forsakes sin. He calls us to live right, act right, speak right, sing right or to be righteous. To love our enemies, our neighbors as ourself, and to love God with our whole heart. To be lights in this wicked world. To serve him in fear and to point those in sin to the shed blood of Christ. Are you a sinner? If so, listen to God's call, yield yourself to him in all things. Do not grieve the Holy Spirit. It will not always strive with you. Turn at God's reproof and calling and be a true soldier of the cross, and so run that you may obtain the robe of white, crown of gold and that mansion so fair that God calls you to inherit.
